Alice! What's wrong?
Some girl tripped me at daycare today! Why is she always so mean?

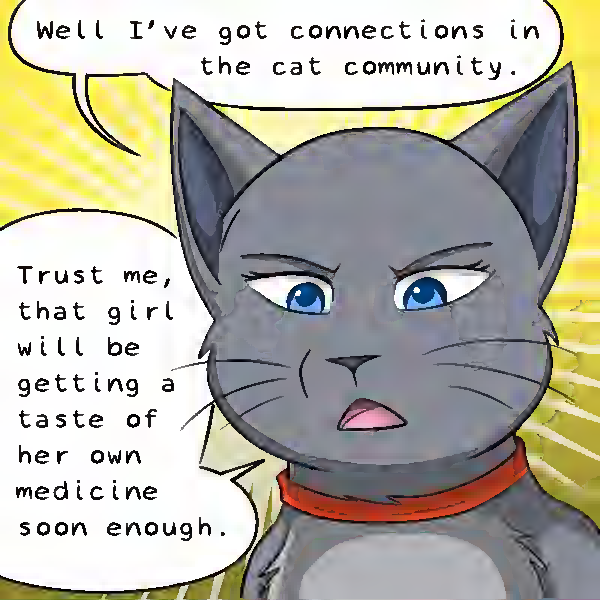
I'll tell you why. It's because you're too good.
The universe needs to balance out your goodness with some evil every once in a while.

However, that bully needs to be taught a lesson of her own, and I know you're far too kind to retaliate.
That's why I'm here.
LEAP

Every angel like you needs an a--hole friend like me.
A guardian devil, if you will.
One who promotes evil for the greater good.

What I'm saying is, if you won't stand up for yourself, I will do it for you.
P.T PAT
Thank you...
Of course.

Now, that girl who tripped you... What does she look like?
Short black hair and a pink dress.
sniff



Well I've got connections in the cat community.
Trust me, that girl will be getting a taste of her own medicine soon enough.
